Go to a good dentist; when you have a horse to shoe don't take it to a shoe store, go to a horseshoer—buy your lumber at a lumber yard—your things to eat at a market or grocery store—and keep away from the undertaker because he will nail you in the end, anyhow. You will find molasses at a grocery store, candy at a candy shop, and for a rattling good suit of clothing come to a store where they sell clothing and nothing else. THAT'S WE'UNS. See

PETERSON NAMED AS ACTING P. M. BY WASHINGTON

Official notification that William C. Peterson, who was assistant postmaster in the administration of Postmaster William F. Young, is now acting postmaster of the Honolulu post office, arrived last night in the mail brought from San Francisco by the Matson steamer Lurline.

The official daily bulletin from Washington of the postoffice department, in its list of acting postmasters (presidential) designated, gives Peterson's name as acting postmaster at Honolulu, Hawaii, effective August 15.

Peterson will thus receive the salary drawn by Postmaster Young, $3500 a year, until a new postmaster is appointed to fill the vacancy caused by Young's recent resignation. Young left Honolulu May 31, with two years of his term yet to serve. He gave as his reason for not returning here the fact that his wife's poor health did not permit her to stay well in the islands.

While Peterson is acting postmaster the office of assistant postmaster will lapse until a new postmaster is appointed, when Peterson will return to his former position.

More activity and more strength appeared in the listed security market today, while in the unlisted Engels Copper and Honolulu Oil scored advances.

Engels Copper continued its most recent advance selling at $2.75 for 500 and then at $2.77 1/2 for 1000. Tipperary sold at 6, unchanged, for 400 shares. There was no change in Mountain King quotation.

Fort Shafter Notes

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
FORT SHAFTER, Sept. 20.—The following most appreciative letter has been received from Harry S. Hayward, commissioner of the Boy Scouts of America, addressed to the adjutant of Fort Shafter: "On behalf of our organization I wish to thank you again for your kindness in sending to our camp a world of help, and not only did their work in a thoroughly 'U. S. soldier' fashion, but they entered into the spirit of the affair and helped in many ways to make it the great success it was. Sgt. Harry C. O'Neill of Company A was our mess sergeant and Corp. Lloyd F. Kirby of Company G and Emil G. Luelflow of Company K were cooks." Each soldier concerned was given an official copy.

The gradings and prizes resulting from the standings made in the recent examinations held for the students of the bakers and cooks' school at Fort Shafter are announced as follows: Grade of first cook and the winner of first prize, $5, in the cooks' course, Pvt. Ralph C. Ewing, Battery F, 1st F. A. Grade of second cook and the winner of the second prize, $2.50, cooks' course, Pvt. Wright Reeves, Company H, 25th Inf. Grade of assistant baker and winner of first prize, $5, bakers' course, Corp. James H. Barr, Company L, 25th Inf.

SUICIDE SWEEPING GERMANY WITH WOMEN LEADING LIST

LONDON, Eng.—"One hundred and eighteen persons, women mostly, committed suicide in Germany in a month because of misery and starvation."

So wires the Geneva correspondent of the Daily Express today. He says his information comes from Munich, and adds:

A mother, accompanied by her three young children, shot herself before the gates of the royal palace in Munich in the presence of the sentries. A placard was found pinned to her breast:

"Your majesty, feed my children; I cannot."

"Parents are abandoning their children in the parks in increasing numbers. The police have collected nearly 300 children in the Rhine towns. The Lokal Anzeiger expresses indignation because thirty-two children were abandoned in Berlin last Sunday."

Sensational prices are being paid in London for old ships, owing to the great scarcity of bottoms, as high as $181,500 being given for the bark Triptolitan, once wrecked.

PACKERS MAY LOSE MILLION A YEAR THROUGH $100 FINE

YONKERS, N. Y.—A fine of $100 imposed on Swift & Co., meat packers, by City Court Judge Joseph H. Beall, carried with it a decision which will cost the country's meat packers $1,000,000 a year if approved by the higher courts, according to their attorneys.

Judge Beall found the packers guilty of having violated the law by charging for meat containers at the same rate as for the meat they contained. It was charged that the company had sold ham weighing eleven pounds six ounces in a container weighing six ounces and charged for eleven pounds twelve ounces of meat.

The company's defense was that the hams are not classed as ordinary meats, and that the buyer knows he is paying meat prices for paper containers.

Shipping and transportation are subjects most vital to the welfare and progress of this Territory.

Continually legislation and executive acts are proposed or taken in Washington which have a most direct bearing on the transportation and merchant marine of this part of our country.

Hawaii ought to take a leading position in every discussion that has to do with shipping. It should be in the forefront of those contesting for a larger merchant marine and the proper protection of American interests in this part of the world.

Though we do not have a vote in Congress we have, and I am sure I could gain, many friends. These friends I would assist in every way possible to aid them in forwarding legislation that will assure improvement of our transportation facilities and ample protection of American interests.

I am in a position to discuss these subjects from the standpoint of the man who has a product to ship and also the standpoint of the men who build the ships and must maintain the great transportation organization.

It is to do work of this character that I am presenting myself as a candidate before the people of this Territory. I believe I can do the work. I know I have the energy and ability to stick to a proposition in a manner that will help others and win success.
